

The community would be impacted greatly if The CARE Center did not exist because the support, opportunity, encouragement, and hope would be missing for children and families. The CARE Center links the assets already in the community and gives the people the opportunities they might otherwise not have.

Becca Abercrombie, volunteer mentor & previous Executive Director